

Figure 1: Comparison of solutions with 16384 cells for the normally-incident absorber test problem using FE time discretization